New York Stock Market

New York, August 22.—Until the last hour it trading to-day stocks were steady with good undertone, although fluctuations ere marrow. Such movements as occurred cere mostly upward with specialities, inhuding American Ice, American Agricultral, Chemical, People's Gas and Searstoebuck in the lead. Toward the close of he day several points of weakness appeared. Union Pacific, Reading, Lehigh Valley, Yew York Central, Can, Smelting and varius other stocks fell off 187 points, and the whole market was heavy at the close. Mexican affairs retained first place in the fetermination of the stock market sentiment. After orders no band at the opening iad been executed the market settled down o await President Wilson's message, and rading came almost to a standstill. It was an hour after the meassage reached the Sirect before the list began to decline. Smelting, which has heavy interests in Mexico, was the weakest stock among the leadure. The slump appeared to be due, however, less to any alarm ever the situation, han to selling by bears. Union Pacific's decline was influenced by the favorable July dialement showing a decrease in net earnings of $51,000. New Haven again developed weakness in the early trading failing 2½ to o 40½, nds were irregular. A number of im-ant irsues showed a considerable degree trength. United States is registered de-d ¼ on call.

MARKET IS SOFT AND IRREGULAR

New York, August 27.—To-day's stock market closed soft and irregular under the bearish operations of professional traders. For the first three hours transactions were

For the first three hours transactions were nominal. The market grew duil between 11 hand 1 o'clock. As an illustration, sixty-three minutes elapsed without a trade in Steel, and Union Pacific moved up $\frac{3}{2}$ of $\pi$ point between transactions.

London was busy on the fortnightly settlement, and although American stocks were generally higher abroad, very little business was done between the markets, barely 19,000 shares changing hands, including purchases and sales.

nothing has occurred to change the belief that we are in for a period of advancing prices. There is little, however, to encour-age further purchases this month, and with a general desire to spend a week-end from town, dull markets are looked for the rest of the week.

IN HARRISON CASE

Feeling Runs High When Detectives Arrive With Man-Will Be Given Hearing To-Day.

Scottsville, Va., August 27 .- Two railroad detectives arrested a man named Jackson near Warren this afternoon as a suspicious character in the Barrison murder case. He was brought to Scottsville about 6 o'clock and was locked up. Jackson is about twentyfive years old, and has been around Scottsville and Warren for several weeks. He claims to be a detective.

He worked for a few days on a farm
just across the river from this place, but did not seem anxious to work, so was discharged. was discharged. Since Richardson Harrison was murdered at the depot here on Sunday morning, Jackson has been acting very suspiciously and finally was arrested. He will appear before Mayor Beal in the morning for a hearing. While there is no real evidence as to his guilt in connection with the murder, he will be held until a thorough investigation can be had.

Feeling ran very high when the man was first brought to town, but when the people were convinced that there was considerable doubt as to having

There is no doubt now in the minds of the people here of the fact that Harrison was murdered. Further developments are expected at any time.

W. W. MASSIE INJURED.

Amherst, Va., August 27.—Yesterday morning, while driving along the Clif-ford Road in the direction of Amherst, W. W. Massie was thrown from his buggy and considerably bruised up when his horse became frightened by C. A. Joubert's autorobile. When the machine passed, the horse, which was a colt, shied, pulling the buggy over into a gully and throwing Mr. Massie out. Mr. Joubert brought Mr. Massie to the Central Hotel, at Amherst, where Dr. R. B. Ware rendered the necessary medical attention. No bones were broken, and, aside from being shaken up and bruised, Mr. Massie's injuries were not serious.

On next Monday, September 1, Professor G. C. Starcher, of Blacksburg representing the Virginia Horticultural Society, and also acting in connection with the Virginia experiment station, will give an apple-packing demonstration on the court green at Amherst.
